PRESS RELEASE

The relaunch plan of Ansaldo Energia continues with no change following the way outlined by me and the Company's Board of Directors, together with the support of our shareholder Cassa Depositi e Prestiti. The goal of all those involved parties is the implementation of the recapitalization, expecting its approval by 31 March.

The industrial plan focuses on the development of technological heritage in the traditional segment of gas turbines and opens to diversification through major investments in renewable and nuclear energy.

I will remain at the head of Ansaldo Energia until 31 March.

All the members of the Ansaldo Energia's Board of Directors remain in office, ensuring the full business continuity.

Giuseppe Marino
